SAFETY EQUIPMENT COMPLIANCE

Regular inspection of your safety equipment is critical to ensure the equipment is safe to use – but this alone is not enough. Inspections must be thorough, documented, and all records retained. These requirements can create a huge challenge for even a small size organization. Using Supertrack to make sure your inspections are being completed correctly, on-time, and that all records are retained forever is the easy way to stay compliant and to know that your workers are using safe equipment.
